HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15 1907

VOLUME XXVII, NO 8

DAY RIDERS HERE

"ARMY OF PEACEFUL INVASION" PARADES ON THE PRINCIPAL STREETS OF HOPKINSVILLE

Meeting Held at Courthouse and Resolutions Adopted Requesting Tobacco Men to Buy or Receive No More Weed Pledged Either to American Society of Equity or Planters' Association.

(From Thursday's Daily)
A body of farmers mostly from the northern portion of Christian county are visiting Hopkinsville today. They characterize themselves as an army of peaceful invasion for the purpose of waiting on the independent tobacco dealers and requesting them to instruct their buyers to cease trying to buy tobacco from members of the farmers' organizations.

In the Crowd
By actual count there were one hundred and thirty-seven men in line, one hundred and sixteen of these being on horseback and twenty-one in buggies. Heading the procession were H. C. Helsley, district and county president of American Society of Equity and George Barnes, a precinct committeeman of the Planters' Protective association.

Rode Around Town.
Early this morning reports reached town that the "army" was on its way, the first report coming from the Greenville road. More squads came from other directions, though, and they all mobilized on Campbell and Walnut streets. They then paraded across to Main and down that thoroughfare through the business section, to Fourth street where they disbanded and the members sought various livery stables and put their horses up for dinner.

The farmers made no hostile demonstrations. Many of them showed by their dress and faded condition that they had come a long distance. This afternoon, about 1:20, the body of men assembled in the circuit court chamber. A large number of Hopkinsville citizens were also present. On motion of George Barnes, H. C. Helsley was elected chairman.

Not "Night Riders."
Squire Helsley said that he felt it should be stated in the outset that the mission of the farmers was one of peace; they were not "night riders" or anything of that sort. Their meeting was one of business.

He and those present did not believe in night riding, it was dirty work, and deserved condemnation. Burning barns or beating anybody was foreign to the feelings and purposes of good citizens, and they had assembled as good citizens.

To Tobacco Buyers.
It was the purpose of the convention, continued Squire Helsley, in a business like way to lay certain propositions before the tobacco buyers of the county, and he asked for the sympathy and co-operation of the community to this end.

What the farmers desired, he said, was that the tobacco buyers should agree not to buy or to receive any tobacco pooled by either the American Society of Equity or the Planters Protective association, and that alone was the object of the meeting. He spoke of the way business interests generally prospered by organization, and said that the farmers should profit by the plan.

Trying to Buy.
In conclusion he said that information had been received that agents of the buyers were out trying to purchase pooled tobacco and that it was earnestly desired that this practice cease, but that the convention would proceed in a legitimate orderly manner. Nobody was urged and nothing destroyed, and nothing was wanted but simple justice and the rights of citizens.

Squire Helsley suggested the appointment of a secretary, and F. B. McCown was elected.

Preacher Talks.
Rev. T. T. Powell, of Carl, addressed the crowd and reiterated the statements of the chairman. He said he heard on the streets that "something was going to be done in Hopkinsville tonight." He laughingly said that this was a mistake; the men assembled were not Night Riders, and were opposed to all forms of violence, and had met to lay plans for better organization and to request the buyers not to take pooled tobacco. He hoped, everybody in town would understand that the farmers were here to hurt nobody but simply to help themselves.

Mr. Fowler Speaks.
W. T. Fowler was called on and made a speech counseling the greatest of care and caution and wisdom in making and carrying out any plans. He was glad to learn that the meeting had the purest of motives and that nothing in the way of coercion or violence was to be attempted. He discussed at length law and love as the basic principles of society. There was no room in the farmers' organizations, he said, for passion or excitement, for such feelings would harm and ultimately wreck them.

The farmers were after the biggest price they could get for their tobacco, the dealers were seeking to get it for as small a price as possible. In the end the motive of each was the same. The farmers and the tobacco men are the same sort of folks and they should strike hands and be friends.

Resolutions Adopted.
The following committeemen were appointed to wait on the tobacco men: H. C. Helsley, J. T. Effe, M. H. Dukes, G. W. Barnes, Q. B. Powell, T. T. Powell and F. B. McCown.

The following resolution was adopted, after which the meeting adjourned:

To Tandy & Fairleigh, the Imperial Tobacco Co., and all other Tobacco Dealers, Buyers, Brokers, Contractors and Agents Doing Business in Hopkinsville, Ky.:

Whereas, if your agents and employees have gone among the members of the American Society of Equity and the members of the Dark Tobacco Growers Association of various sections of Christian county and have, by misrepresentation and falsifying, induced such members to sell to them and to you their respective crops of tobacco which had been heretofore pledged to said associations, and have made repeated efforts to persuade members to violate their pledge:

And believing that these agents have withheld and concealed facts from you, and that if these facts were brought to your notice you would at once correct them, the undersigned committee appointed in mass convention assembled at the court house in Hopkinsville Ky., on Thursday, Nov. 14, 1907, which meeting represented a body of members from both organizations, hereby request you to instruct all your agents buying in this county, not to further procure their membership to violate their contracts and pledges; and do further request that you surrender all such contracts back to said planters.

This notice is given in a spirit of fair-dealing, and with no implication or threat of violence.

We believe you are, with few exceptions, a class of men who have the interests of our people at heart, at least are willing to give us a fair chance in the battle of life, and you will recognize the justice of this request.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE

COMMITTED BY MASKED MEN AT MIDNIGHT ON JOHN W. WICKS, A WELL-KNOWN TOBACCO BUYER OF THIS CITY

Taken at Point of Guns From Dwelling Where He Was Spending the Night And Beaten With a Stick, and Warned That He Would be Killed if He Came Into The Community Again.

John W. Wicks, a well known tobacco buyer, in the employ of the Tandy and Fairleigh Tobacco Co., and a respected and lawabiding citizen of Hopkinsville, was the victim of a brutal and outrageous assault Monday night of this week by masked men. He was severely beaten with a stick and warned that he would be hanged if he returned to the community. Mr. Wicks is fifty seven years of age and a man of slender physique, weighing only 125 pounds.

At His Business.
On last Monday Mr. Wicks was in the vicinity of William West's home on the Pilot Rock road about ten miles from Hopkinsville pursuing his regular occupation of examining and buying crops of tobacco. He stopped at the house of Mr. West to spend the night. About half past twelve o'clock Mr. Wicks and Mr. and Mrs. West were awakened by the cries of men on the outside. They called "Wicks! Wicks!" and pounded on the door as if they intended to break it down. Finally, Mr. West called out to know what was wanted and was told that he was not the one sought. "We want Wicks," the men cried, "and we mean business."

Unwilling to make any further trouble for his hosts, who were thoroughly frightened, Mr. Wicks went to the door in his night clothes. When the door was opened, a man on each side shoved a gun in his face, and demanded that he should accompany them. It was a cold night and Mr. Wicks asked that he be allowed to put on his clothes. This request was refused and he was roughly seized and jerked out of the door. There were six men in the party and all were masked. After

Want Reward Offered.
It is understood that steps have been taken to have the authorities offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of the brutal assailants. On September 30, Mr. Wicks received a threatening letter, mailed at Kirkmansville, warning him to stop buying tobacco.

MRS. BUCKNER DEAD

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Mrs. Sarah A. E. Buckner, the venerable mother of Samuel G. Buckner, died at 1:15 o'clock this morning at her suburban home, aged eighty-eight years. She had long been an invalid, but it was not until yesterday morning that her condition caused apprehension. She sank gradually through the day, and shortly after midnight passed peacefully away.

The deceased was a native of Christian county and all of her long and useful life had been spent in it. She was, before her marriage, Miss Sarah A. Gordon, and was born December 2, 1819. Her father, Samuel Gordon, a pioneer citizen, was born in Buckingham county, Va., and died in 1852. She was married in 1835 to the late Frank W. Buckner, who was a prominent citizen of Christian county. Mr. Buckner was a native of Virginia and was born in 1800 and died in 1864.

Four sons survive Mrs. Buckner. They are: Samuel G. Buckner, Harry Buckner, Upshaw Buckner and Frank Buckner, the last named residing in Clarksville, Tenn.

Virgil Hamby.
Virgil Hamby, one of the oldest citizens of this county, died suddenly at his home near Crofton Monday evening about 6 o'clock. Mr. Hamby had been in his usual good health and had eaten a hearty supper a short time before he died. He was sitting in his chair before the fire, and the first intimation the family had of his condition was when he began to sink down into the chair. Death resulted within a few minutes. Mr. Hamby was a veteran of the civil war, being a member of Co. G, 17th Ky. volunteer infantry in the Federal army.

Pursley Explains Reason For Remarkable Average of Birmingham Callers.

During J. J. Pursley's recent stay in Birmingham, Ala., it is estimated that eighteen thousand people talked with him and purchased his medicine. He was there thirty days. This is an average of six hundred a day. His success was so phenomenal as to cause universal comment both by the public and the press. There must be a reason for this. Here is the reason given in his own words, by Mr. Pursley. "When interviewed on the subject, he said, 'The immense number of people who are calling on me here in Birmingham is not unusual. I have held the same experience for the past three years wherever I have advertised. The reason is a simple one. It is because my medicine, Pursley's Vegetable Compound cures where others fail. The stomach, kidneys and liver are the very foundation of life and every physician attributes 90 per cent of all sickness to these organs and Pursley's Vegetable Compound works directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, therefore cleansing the blood of all impurities, curing rheumatism, indigestion, constipation, kidney, liver and all blood and nerve diseases. Mr. Pursley is now advertising this wonderful remedy at L. A. Johnson's Drug Store, Hopkinsville, Ky., and to advertise his wonderful remedy is selling a large $1.00 bottle for 50c, a full treatment three bottles for $1.00. The sale of this wonderful remedy is getting to be immense and Saturday Nov. 30th is the last day at 50c per bottle and parties living too far from Hopkinsville to call can send $1.00 to L. Johnson, Druggist, Hopkinsville, Ky., and he will express to dress. A full treatment of remedy, 3 large $1.00 bottles, $1.00, and remember 30th is the last day sale."

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

CURE BY CUTICURA AT CITY MISSION

Young Woman Found in Awful Condition with Scabies—Body a Mass of Sores from Scratching—Tried Many Remedies for Seven Weeks—Result Was Discouraging, But

ITCHING TORTURES YIELDED TO CUTICURA

"While I was doing missionary work in the lower portion of several cities I found it necessary to know a little of the efficacy of a few medicines and after a while I found that a little knowledge of Cuticura was about all I needed. One of the very bad cases I had to deal with was that of a young woman who had come to me with scabies (the itch), incipient paresis, rheumatism, etc., brought on from exposure and the effects of her ragged-edged life. Her poor body was a mass of sores from scratching and she was not able to retain solid food. We tried many things, a good tonic was prescribed and bathed with a rubbing of lard and sulphur. We worked hard for seven weeks and you can imagine how discouraged we were when, after all that time, we could see so little improvement. One day I happened to see a Cuticura advertisement telling how a little baby had been cured of a bad case of skin eruption, and although I had but ninety-seven cents with me, I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent. When I reached home I was like a child with a new toy, and we bathed our patient well and gave her a full dose of the Resolvent. She slept that night better than she had since she had been with us and the next day I located the price of a box of Cuticura Ointment. I am not exaggerating when I say that in exactly five weeks this young woman was able to look for a position, being strong enough to work and full of ambition. In another month she left the home, and now has a good position in a nice family where she is respected and is strong and well. You may wish to see a copy of the book, 'Laura Jane Bates, 85 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y., Mar. 11, 1907.' DEATH WAS SUDDEN

MR. "MACK" O'BRIEN PASSES AWAY NEAR GUTHRIE

His Home Was at Pembroke.—Former Superintendent of the Todd County Schools.

McDonald O'Brien, of Pembroke, well known in this city, died, suddenly Friday at the home of his son, Cons. H. O'Brien, near Guthrie.

The Pembroke Journal gives the following account of his demise:

"Death was the result of heart disease and came suddenly and apparently without a struggle. Although the hour of his death is not known, it was sometime after five o'clock. His son went to his room at that hour to make a fire and his father called to breakfast when the rest of the family ate, and an hour or two later his daughter-in-law prepared his breakfast and carried it to his room. She was horrified to find him dead.

"Mr. O'Brien had been ill with heart trouble a few days before his death, but had improved so much that his death was a great shock to his family and friends. The deceased was born in North Carolina, but had spent the most of his long life in Todd county. He was a true blue Democrat and always manifested a keen interest in political affairs. He served three terms as superintendent of Todd county schools and discharged the duties of his office in a very creditable manner. Mr. O'Brien was a splendid citizen and a large list of acquaintances were all his friends. He is survived by two children, Mrs. T. D. Jamieson, of this city, and C. H. O'Brien, of Todd county. Since his retirement from office a few years ago he had made his home here with his daughter, having been on a visit to his son when overtaken by death. He was buried in the Kimbrough burying ground near Hadensville, Saturday."

DIRE DISTRESS.

It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Hopkinsville Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is the kidneys cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to their aid means that urinary troubles follow quickly.

Dire distress, diabetes, Bright's disease.

M. G. Long, farmer, one of the best known residents of the country who lives on the large farm which he owns, on the Franklin road on a half mile east of Russellville Ky., says: "I had marked symptoms of kidney ailments, particularly in connection with the kidney secretions which at times were most irregular and distressing. Once and a while I would feel a heavy, dull aching across the small of my back, always more severe after any over-exertion. My attention was attracted to Doan's Kidney Pills by advertisements in the papers and the statements made by the people who had tried them led me to believe that they could be depended upon. I procured a box and before I had used the contents there was a vast improvement in my condition, enough to prove to my satisfaction that Doan's Kidney Pills are fine for kidney and bladder troubles."

REPUBLICANS PLAN

TO USE THE AX ON BOARD OF CONTROL

Heads of Haly, Board and Phillips,
According to Report, May
Drop In the Basket.

Republicans are planning to make quick work of beheading a number of Democratic state officials. The heads of Percy Haly, Dr. Milton Board and Robert J. Phillips, members of the state board of control, will go either immediately after the Gov.-elect Wilson takes the oath of office or right after the sixty-day session of the general assembly. Mr. Phillips term of office will expire on January 1. Dr. Board's appointment was made to last nearly two years longer, while Gen. Haly's term does not expire until 1910.

But here comes the rub—the law steps in and says that any member of the state board of control can be removed by the governor for cause put in writing, subject to an appeal to the state senate therefrom. Mr. Willson can remove the entire board at his pleasure, but in time Messrs. Haly, Board and Phillips could appeal to the state senate, still Rome deal to the state senate, still Democratic, and it is a question whether that body would sustain the reasons given by the governor. Again they might take the position that the governor should have his administration made up of men of his own political faith and might sustain him. But, at any rate, there is no chance for the Democrats.

Mr. Phillips must retire anyway, his term expiring at that time, and after the assembly adjourns, Mr. Willson can then remove Messrs.

Haly and Board, as there can be no appeal to the state senate until two years later when the assembly will convene again. Therefore, there is no chance for the board of control to remain as it is constituted at present and Democrats and Republicans will be in control of the state's charitable institutions.

OFFICIAL COUNT IN STATE RACES
IS COMPLETEDFacts and Figures of the Election
That Will Prove Interesting to Many Readers.

The official count of the vote in Christian county was completed Friday afternoon and the figures tabulated and certified to by the commissioners who are J. M. Starling, John B. Chilton and David Smith. The vote in nearly every race was changed somewhat but not materially. The majorities range from 1,805 for Napier Adams to 1,342 for Judge Breathitt. Willson's majority is increased by eight votes, the official count giving him 1,321 instead of 1,313. The constitutional amendment was snuffed under by more than two to one, there being 1,213 votes for it and 3,099 against or a majority against the amendment of 1,886. The Prohibition ticket was almost left out, there being a vote cast for the various candidates ranging from 62 to 59. This was not so bad, though, when compared with the vote for the Socialist ticket which ranged from 6 to 8 except in the race for railroad commissioner in which O. L. Harney received 79 votes. The Socialist Labor ticket was barely recognized, there being two people in the county who voted for it straight through. For representative John Feland, who had no opposition, received 3,577 vote. The vote in the various races was as follows:

For governor, S. W. Hager Dem. 2,605, A. E. Willson, Rep. 3,236, Willson's majority 1,321.

For lieutenant governor, South Trimble, Dem. 2,553, William H. Cox, Rep. 3,886, Cox's majority 1,333.

For attorney general, John K. Hendrix, Dem. 2,657, James Breathitt, Rep. 3,899, Breathitt's majority 1,342.

For auditor, H. M. Bosworth, Dem. 2,559, Frank P. James, Rep. 3,871, James majority 1,312.

For treasurer, Ruby Laffoon, Dem. 2,560, Edwin Farley, Rep. 3,866, Farley's majority 1,306.

For secretary of state, Hubert Vreeland, Dem. 2,553, Ben L. Bruner, Rep. 3,878, Bruner's majority 1,325.

For superintendent of public instruction, M. O. Wintrey, Dem. 2,559, J. G. Crabbe, Rep. 3,870, Crabbe's majority 1,311.

For commissioner of agriculture, labor and statistics, J. W. Newman, Dem. 2,533, Merrell C. Rankin, Rep. 3,866, Rankin's majority 1,333.

For clerk of court of appeals, John B. Chenault, Dem. 2,561, Napier Adams, Rep. 3,893, Adams' majority 1,305.

For railroad commissioner, McD. Ferguson, Dem. 2,562, C. L. Harney, Socialist, 79, Ferguson's majority, 2,483.

COST IS INCREASING

TAKES HARD WORK AND STRICT ECONOMY TO LIVE

Everything Has Gone Up But Salaries.—Reports From All Sections Of The Country.

The cost of living is a problem in America today. The necessities of life have risen almost beyond reach of the average salaried man, and the wolf is threatening to appear at the doors of many. Groceries, foodstuffs, clothing, rents—in fact, everything that the average man needs to keep his family supplied—have increased. Even whisky has taken a rise, but from this source the consumer suffers little. The bartender may hand him a cheaper brand, but 15 cents per drink and two for a quarter is still the prevailing price.

The boarding house landlady, who ten years ago furnished board and lodging for $20 per month finds that she made as much clear profit then as she does now charging $30 per month. Even the boarding and livery stables are getting beyond the reach of the average salaried man. A cottage that rented for $15 per month ten years ago now brings $25. These conditions according to reports from all over the land, are not local, but general. Farm lands, as well as city property have increased in value along with the increase in the cost of living. The reason for the increased cost of the necessities of life, according to many, is the great demand for everything that is needed to sustain life and give comfort.

A prominent railroad man, in speaking of the subject, says that the idea that the freight congestion is caused by overproduction is erroneous. He explains that it is not overproduction that renders the railroads unable to keep pace with the progress, but the demand. The large movement of freight is brought about by the immense demand for everything raised on the farm, mined from the earth and manufactured from raw material.

Real estate dealers say the increase in the value of real estate is occasioned by the great demand for both city and farm lands, and the wonderful industrial and agricultural development that has been going on is evidence that the country is not suffering from hard times.

In a recent issue of the Literary Digest, the following appeared in regard to the situation:

"From all sections reports indicate mounting prices in foodstuffs. The beef trust has advanced the cost of living the past few days, and the public must march up to the counter, mournfully remarks the Washington Post. Yet the consumer, it appears, is not the only one to suffer under present conditions. The recent failure of two prominent wholesale produce dealers in Pittsburgh, according to the Philadelphia Ledger, is ascribed to the decline in the demand for foodstuffs at the high prices prevailing in that city. If the cost of living be due to an actual shortage of crops, explains the Ledger, little relief can be expected until the yield of another season reaches the market. The Pittsburgh wholesale dealers, however, say that the blame in their case, rests with the produce growers, who have combined to raise prices, forming a sort of 'farmers' trust.' But as fruit and vegetable crops have been short in all parts of the country, with the exception of the Pacific coast, the Ledger suggests, that the difficulty may be something more than a matter of combination in restraint of trade. 'The great rise in the price of meat, it points out, 'has thrown an unusual demand upon other articles, and this tends to increase the cost of these other commodities, whose prices are already swollen by a short supply.'"

There are no assuring indications of a general fall in prices, it adds. The average citizen, remarks the New York Sun, is but little enlightened by the acres of printed matter in newspapers, magazines and special reports with reference to the cost of living, the question for most of us resolving itself into the results of an individual experience. The Sun, nevertheless, has some interesting words to say of the subject. To quote in part:

"The people may be divided into profit-makers, salary-drawers and wage-earners. There are no statistics that show with certainty the financial condition of the members of these classes today as compared with their conditions in times of lower prices and lower wages. General investigation and personal inquiry led to a definite opinion that the profit makers and the wage earners are better off today than in earlier days, and that the condition of the salaried section are more burdensome. While each group will furnish its exceptions to this view, the general proposition will probably hold.

"In a recently published article the assertion is made that 'in thirteen years the increase in the cost of living has not been more than 3-1-2 per cent. of a workingman's income. The basis for the percentage is an income of $856.' The notably weak point in this argument is that $856 is an utterly absurd estimate of the workingman's income.' The census of 1900 reports 5,308,143 wage-earners with an average income of a little less than $440. A selected list of twenty-three industries employing 3,137,000 hands show for 1906 an average of $512. The workingman's account book, if he keeps one, is not likely to show his income as $585, nor to confirm the estimate of a mere 3-1-2 per cent. increase in the cost of living in thirteen years.

"Growing expenses, however, are offset by better pay, and there is no question that our wage earners live better, dress better and save more money than they did twenty or even ten years ago. It is undeniable that wage-earners as a class have derived benefit from the higher price levels. In fact, it is to their increased income that the increase in the cost of living is largely attributed.

The profit-makers, the merchants, manufacturers, traders, as a class, have profited rather by general trade activity than by the change in prices. Their income may be affected in some measure by price conditions, but it is not entirely or even largely dependent upon them. Profit margins are based on cost, whether the cost be high or low. The victims of prosperity, of increased cost of living, are salary drawers, who have no power to effect an increase in income by union, strike or other weapon. Upon this class, with a membership of several millions, the burden of higher prices falls with great weight."

This latter point is also taken up by the Washington Post, which returns to the subject in a later issue. Especially, it says, is this true of the clerks of the United States government, for whom "there is no balm of Gilead in these flush days." Receiving the same pay that they got in 1880, they are "being docked the difference between the value of the dollar then and the value of the dollar now."

In the New Era's great contest.

That poetry may not be worthy of Shakespeare, Milton, Byron or any of the old classic fellows, but it relates FACTS, and FACTS, dearly beloved, are worth lots more than mere sentiment.

The new pony is the talk of the town, and lively and interesting as the Children's Contest has been from the first, there is every reason to believe it will now be more intense and general than ever.

Our Surprise

Several days ago we promised the little larger in size than "Bonnie Boy" so that he will be strong enough to carry any one on his back. The addition of this second pony greatly increases the expense of the contest but we feel sure that the children who are candidates, as well as others who may decide to enter the race, will appreciate the offer and by their renewed and persistent efforts show their appreciation.

The contest has only one more month to run and in this time we expect the ballots to come in thick and fast. The contest will close at 6 p. m., on December 10 and the highest vote in the contest, irrespective of district, will be counted must be voted by that time. Don't forget that it is some pony with saddle and bridle, especially the coupons issued on subscriptions for his saddle qualities but will also be thoroughly broken to harness and able to pull any vehicle of suitable size. The saddle and bridle will be the nicest to be had and the pony and equipment will make a prize which will appeal to every boy and girl. We expect to select a pony a

There Is A Reason

One pony was enough to make the young folks eager but two of them, to say nothing of the eleven GOLD WATCHES, means that from one end of the county to the other the children will be hard at work and busy as bees from now until the close, which is not far off.

Sane Conditions

Any white girl or boy, under sixteen years of age is eligible to enter this contest. The contest begins on Sept. 10 and will close Dec. 10, 1907, at 6 o'clock p. m.

For every dollar paid on subscription to either the Daily or Weekly New Era, the subscriber will receive in advance or on arrears, on old coupons a coupon good for 100 votes will be issued. These coupons must be voted within 20 days after being issued. No person connected with this office, nor any member of his or her immediate family is eligible as a candidate, neither can they cast votes.

A candidate must reside in the district from which he or she is entered but should they remove during the contest all votes cast for them must be transferred to them from the district into which they move. This is the only way in which transfers of votes will be made.

A person living in one district may vote in another district for a candidate in another district anywhere but in such case the ballot must bear the number of the district in which the candidate lives and not that of the voter.

Each ballot costs $5.00. However these ballots may be pinned together and only the top one filled out, in which case the entire bunch will be counted for the person whose name is on the top one.

All that is necessary to enter a candidate is for some friend to cast one or more votes for him or her. The plan of distributing the prizes by districts is so that at least one prize will be awarded to every district. The coupons will be allowed on subscription offer, while candidates living outside the county are also given the

Here's Our Surprise

New Era Will Give the Children Another Pony as a Splendid Second Prize in the "Bonnie Boy" and Gold Watch Contest.

Several days ago we promised the children a surprise in regard to the gold watch and pony contest and now here it is. At the beginning of the contest we offered as the prize in each of the eleven districts a gold watch to the one receiving the highest number of votes in that district and to the one receiving the highest number of votes irrespective of district, the pony "Bonnie Boy" with the handsome buggy and harness. Now we are going to put in a second prize and this also will be a pony. To the child who receives the second highest vote in the contest, irrespective of district, we will give a handsome pony with saddle and bridle. This pony will be selected especially for his saddle qualities but will also be thoroughly broken to harness and able to pull any vehicle of suitable size. The saddle and bridle will be the nicest to be had and the pony and equipment will make a prize which will appeal to every boy and girl. We expect to select a pony a little larger in size than "Bonnie Boy" so that he will be strong enough to carry any one on his back.

The addition of this second pony greatly increases the expense of the contest but we feel sure that the children who are candidates, as well as others who may decide to enter the race, will appreciate the offer and by their renewed and persistent efforts show their appreciation.

The contest has only one more month to run and in this time we expect the ballots to come in thick and fast. The contest will close at 8 p. m., on December 10 and ballots to be counted must be voted by that time. Don't forget that it is the coupons issued on subscriptions which really count—100 votes being given for every dollar paid on subscription to either the daily or weekly. The candidates should therefore make a thorough canvass among their friends and secure all the renewals and new subscriptions possible so as to get the benefit of these extra votes.

Cupid at Carl.

Two weddings were solemnized at Carl Monday, the contracting parties being Richard Boyd and Miss Flora Henderson and Jerome K. Long and Miss Nannie E. Henderson. Rev. T. T. Powell officiated in each case, the weddings taking place separately. Although the brides had the same name they were not related.

Fiscal Court.

A call has been issued by Judge Breathitt for a meeting of the fiscal court on next Tuesday. The object of the session is to hear reports on the work of piking the county roads, which is already under way, to consider bids on other roads and to go over the road situation in full.

Dr. Gray.

Dr. John E. Gray the veterinary surgeon of Bowling Green was in the city yesterday to do some special surgery and will make this city regularly until Dr. Isbell returns to the city.

Bride Is Icy.

ASSOCIATION HOUSE

Rock Bridge Stemmy Used by Dorris & Fairleigh, Authorized Prizers.

One of the busiest places in Hopkinsville is the Rock bridge stemmy, where Messrs. Robert M. Fairleigh and W. R. Dorris, the popular and experienced proprietors, are working up association tobacco. The firm has a contract with the Planters Protective association, and their business has already opened up in a way that presages great success. No expense or pains have been spared in properly fitting out the prizing house, and it is a model. There is no more commodious factory, and the proprietors, who are giving the business their exclusive personal attention, propose to keep it thoroughly up to date.

The stripping rooms are in the basement, and the big prizing room is on the main floor. It has ten screws and steam power is used. On this floor, also, are rooms for bulking and storage. The drying rooms are in the third story. As the factory has 25,000 feet of floor space, crops can be kept separate with no difficulty. The firm works from fifty to seventy-five men, and the very best workmen for the various departments are employed.

Why Sloan's Liniment and Veterinary Remedies Are the Best to Use.

Let me tell you why Sloan's Liniment and Veterinary Remedies are the safest and most practical on the market today. In the first place, Dr. Earl S. Sloan is the son of a veterinary surgeon, and from his earliest infancy he was associated with horses.

He bought and sold horses while yet very young. He practiced as a veterinary for twenty years, and has battled successfully with every disease to which that animal is subject.

All his remedies are the result of experiments made to save life or relieve suffering while practicing his profession.

Any reader, by writing to Dr. Earl S. Sloan, 615 Albany street, Boston, Mass., will receive "Sloan's Treatise on the Horse," free. This book tells how to treat horses, cattle, hogs and poultry.

Lesson VII.—Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 17, 1907.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of Lesson, Judg. vii, 9-23—Memory Verses, 17, 18—Golden Text, Deut. xxi, 23—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1907, by American Bible Association.]

In Paul's sermon at Antioch, in Pisidia, he summarizes the four books of Exodus, Numbers, Joshua and Judges in about as many sentences (Acts xiii, 17-20), giving an epitome of Judges in these words: "And after that He gave unto them judges about the space of 450 years until Samuel the prophet."

Our lessons since the first of June have covered about fifty years of history, and now we are to have two lessons out of 450 years, with a temperance lesson between, but as our aim is to know God as we see Him working the period of time covered by the lesson or lessons is not of primary importance. Throughout the whole Bible these two facts seem always prominent, the patience and love of God and the rebellion and sin of man. In this book of Judges these are very prominent, an oft repeated sentence being "The children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord" (ii, 11; iii, 7; iv, 1; v, 1; x, 6; xiii, 1). A characteristic sentence is "They coated not from their own delings, nor from their stubborn way" (ii, 19), and the last section of the book begins and ends with "There was no king in Israel; every man did that which was right in his own eyes" (xvii, 6; xxi, 25). On the other hand, we read that the Lord reasoned with them, saying: "I said I will never break My covenant with you, and ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars, but ye have not obeyed My voice. Why have ye done this?" "Nevertheless the Lord raised up judges, . . . and when the Lord raised them up judges then the Lord was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies."

After several oppressions and deliverances the lesson of today finds them in the hands of the Midianites, greatly impoverished and sorely oppressed, crying unto the Lord in their distress (vi, 6). A man named Gideon, of the tribe of Manasseh, while secretly threshing some wheat, hoping to save it from the Midianites, seems to have had some thoughts of what he would like to do to Midian. The Lord, whose eyes are everywhere looking for such as have eyes and hearts for Him, called upon him and greeted him thus: "This Lord is with thee, thou man of valor." "Go in this thy might and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have not I sent thee?" "Surely I will be with thee" (vi, 11-13; II Chron. xvi, 9; Ezek. xi, 5). Gideon was not quite as brave as his thoughts and pleaded his unworthiness, but was encouraged by some signs from the Lord, and vi, 34, says, "The Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon (or clothed himself with Gideon), and he blew a trumpet, and Abimelech was gathered after him." The whole story of Gideon's offering, the overthrow of his father's altar to Baal, the fleece and the dew, and the sifting of an army of 32,000 down to 300, is most fascinating, and it is to be hoped that all teachers will find some time for each incident. One of our great weaknesses is to think that nothing can be accomplished without a lot of people or a lot of money or a lot of material. We are slow to learn that the power and wisdom and might and wealth of man may be a hindrance rather than a help to the Lord and that He takes the foolish and the weak and the base and the things which are not, to bring to naught things that are, that no flesh should glory in His presence (I Cor. i, 27-29). A victory won by 32,000 might tempt Israel to say, "Mine own hand hath saved me" and thus lead them to boast against God (vii, 2). First the fearful ones are sent home, and 22,000 return. Then the 10,000 are further sifted by the way they take a drink of water, and only 300 zealous, self-renewing people are left. Let the question search us, Where would I come in? Luke xiv, 33, seems to fit here.

See how wholly this victory is of the Lord. Where is there a particle of human wisdom or so-called common sense in what Gideon does? Three companies of 100 men each, in one hand of each man a trumpet and in the other an earthen vessel containing a torch, and their marching orders, "Look on me and do likewise." "As I do, so shall ye do" (verses 16-18). They evidently spread themselves out about the hosts of the Midianites, and at the signal from Gideon each man blew his trumpet, raised his torch, having broken his vessel, and shouted, "The sword of the Lord and of Gideon" (19-23). The enemy began to kill one another, and the rest was easy. A sentence that catches my eye and reaches my heart is in verse 21, "They stood every man in his place," reminding us of Mark xiii, 34, "To every man his work," and I Cor. xii, 11, "The Spirit dividing to every man severally as He will." Our Gideon (bruiser), the great bruiser of the enemy (Gen. iii, 15; Rom. xvi, 20), says to each of His redeemed ones, "Go in this thy might; I have sent thee; I will be with thee." "Let your light shine." "Ye shall be witnesses unto Me" (Matt. xxviii, 18-20; v, 16; John xx, 21; Acts i, 8). The trumpet suggests a clear testimony as to the statement, and the torch a consistent life. In II Cor. iv, 7, we are reminded that we have this treasure in earthen vessels that the excellency of the power may be of God and not of us.

TWENTY-TWO JAILS

HAVE HELD MRS. NATION BUT SHE'S STILL ABOUT

Paid a Visit on Sunday to Relatives in Hopkinsville.—Talks About Herself.

Aunt Carrie Nation's Been to town again, But to smash a barroom She did not delay; Merely broke the Sabbath Riding on the train.

Mrs. Carrie Nation—of "Carry a nation," as she modestly signs her name—spent Sunday in the city and left this morning at six o'clock for Nashville to attend the Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention. While here Mrs. Nation was the guest of her relatives, Dr. J. P. Peyton and family, and her uncle, Squire Alex Campbell. She has been on a lecture tour of Kentucky towns, and expects soon to appear in a big revised production of "Ten Nights in a Barroom." There will be a smashing scene, and between acts, Mrs. Nation will address the audience on the evils of intemperance.

While here Mrs. Nation was dressed in black, with a black hat and a black shawl thrown around her shoulders. Under her arm she carried her well-worn Bible. She talked a great deal about herself and her experiences. She told of several interesting incidents that she had taken part in and of many hardships she had experienced in her saloon smashing tours. She said that she had been in jail twenty-two times. She also told of the rough treatment she had received at several places.

The notorious saloon-raider and spectacular smasher of bar-rooms with her hatchet, was born in Kentucky and moved first to Missouri in early youth and finally settled in Kansas. In 1885 she married a young physician named Gloyd. Unfortunately for the pair Dr. Gloyd was addicted to strong drink. They lived at Holden, Mo., for a short time, but soon separated. Dr. Gloyd did not live long. Mrs. Gloyd next married David Nation, who was editor of the Warrensburg Journal. They lived together 24 years, when Mrs. Nation began to smash up saloons and her husband sued for and obtained a divorce, while she was in prison for destroying property.

Mrs. Nation has been arrested many times on this same charge and served a number of terms in prison. She made a tour of the east with a revised edition of the play, "Ten Nights in a Barroom." She made, a few months ago, a sensational attempt to see President Roosevelt but was put out of the White house. She also addressed the senate from one of the galleries in the chamber, but was ejected.

How to Cure a Cold

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Anderson & Fowler Drug Co. (incorporated.)

"IN GOD WE TRUST" ATTEMPTED TO KILL

Just Why It Was Done Will be Looked Into.—Regarded as Serious Matter.

"In God we trust" Is omitted, 'tis said 'Cause Roosevelt thought It should have read Something like this: "We trust in Ted."

"In God we trust" is omitted on the latest $10 gold piece just received by the treasury department from the Philadelphia mint, says a Washington despatch and it is more than probable that the Christian organizations of the county will set on foot an inquiry to find out the reason for the change. Every coin heretofore put out by Uncle Sam, from the 25 cent piece up, has always borne the time-honored motto, and the omission of the legend at this late day, without congressional authority, is regarded as a serious matter by many authorities.

The new $10 gold piece is from a design made by the late Augustus St. Gaudens, the distinguished sculptor, and was approved by the president. On one side it bears the American eagle with the war arrows in its talons, and on the other has the profile of an Indian with feathered headdress.

EUGENE LITTLEPAGE AGAINST WHOM HE HAD GRUDGE.

Charles Garrott Is In Jail Charged With Serious Crime.—Fight Over a Woman.

Two nigger boys And one had a gun, Pulled on the trigger, Then there was one Lying on the ground, Together on the run.

As a result of an old grudge which had been often renewed, Charles Garrott shot Eugene Littlepage through the muscle of the right arm Saturday night about six o'clock. Both parties are colored and the shooting occurred on Jesup avenue. Earlier in the afternoon Littlepage had requested Policeman Broderick to search Garrott for a weapon. Littlepage stating that Garrott has been following him about for the purpose of shooting him. The officer made a search but failed to find a weapon on Garrott's person. He must have secured a pistol soon afterward, for it was only a short time until the shooting occurred. Garrott was arrested and is now held on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. The negroes have had several conflicts heretofore about a woman.

Use of a Rear Guard. /

Perhaps you have seen that wonderful picture of Napoleon at Austerlitz, where he is upon the hillside, seated upon his famous white horse, overlooking the field of battle. He is surrounded by his staff. The field glass is in his hand, and he is gazing eagerly right and left. He is looking everywhere. Off in the distance you can see the smoke of carnage. You can almost hear the shouts of triumph and the groans of the dying. Yet you focus your study not so much upon the battlefield as on the flashing eye of the emperor, for you know that every act of that line of battle has been ordered by him. You know that this one military command can speak a word and his troops move in strict obedience to his will. You know that the cause of this fact is this: Upon the great battlefield of life can God, as the Divine Commander, be sure that we shall be and do exactly as he pleases? Can he say unto us, "Go," and we go; "Stop," and we stop; "Do this," and we do it? There is no use of a rear guard for our sinner unless we are in the place where the Divine Commander has willed. You know what that means. You know deep down in your heart, what God has said to do. You know what God has said to do. Brother, are you obeying his will? The question is not as to the situation and work of other men, but are you willing in God's sight to stand in the position he has appointed for you?

But though the Divine Commander may detail us to the most dangerous positions in the line of battle, though he may allow the conflict of life to rage fiercely about us, though he may let the blows of the enemy strike us deep and often fetch the warrior's blood, yet he will never allow us to be overwhelmed and defeated if we trust him and do what he wants us to do and rely on his loving care. Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every one whom he reloveth." That is the one rule of service. That is the divine law which affirms that every true gospel soldier will be able to stand the fiercest trial. He has the other assurance is just as sure and reaching, "God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape that ye may be able to bear it." That means in plain English when the struggles of life become so great that you cannot bear them in your own strength, God will give you the power to overcome and his rear guard to succor to the Rescue.

And the power that came about this regard is: The older you get the more your spiritual help seems to be by our side. For instance, take that rear guard of the old homestead. One could naturally suppose those veterans' usefulness was ended. Why, your father and mother have been paid for at least twenty years. Then the last five years of her life your mother was a helpless, physical invalid. She spent most of her time in bed. She was so weak that she could not even read. You now can hear your sister reading to her hour after hour. Then as for walking, that was out of the question. She had fallen upon the ice and broken her hip, and she could not get up. But now, what a useless Christian warrior she thought she was! And yet as the years roll on she is drawing nearer and nearer to you. When the temptations of life come you can see her face. You can feel her touch. You can hear the words of advice she used to give. Why, her favorite passages of Scripture, the old good old memory, and she has her love, her prayers, her words of counsel, your rear guard. Do to your horse as well as to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort—your horse need not suffer by a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Bakersfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your Liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by L. A. Johnson & Co.

SHOOTING SCRAPE

GROWING OUT OF QUARREL
OVER ELECTION.

Near Trenton, Republican Wounded
By a Democrat.—Self Defense Is Claimed.

On the farm of Richard Meriwether near Trenton, Tuesday, Jim Price, a Republican, was shot and seriously wounded by J. H. Davenport, a Democrat, and a tenant on the Meriwether farm. The particulars are meager, but according to the Todd County Times it appears that Price went to the farm with some whisky and attempted to get several negroes on the place to go to Trenton and vote. A quarrel ensued, resulting in the shooting of Price by Davenport, two balls, it is reported, taking effect in Price's breast. Davenport, it is understood, claims self-defense. He executed bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at his examining trial Nov. 20, by which time it will possibly be known whether Price's wounds are fatal.
